

MAKING IT PERSONAL

- Romans 16:1-16
- All people are important
 - There are poor and wealthy; slave and free – all equal in God's eyes
 - When it comes to greeting people, do we extend the same WELCOME to everyone?
- Various forms of service are important
 - Different people, different roles, same service – to Jesus
 - When it comes to recognizing service, do we encourage everyone equally?
- Proper greeting shows personal investment
 - It is critically important to extend a hand of fellowship – by name
 - Are we intentional in our interactions with others – to make them feel included?

- The church should be THE place where everyone is known by name and feels that they are loved.
